

Won Case 5

Karen Abgaryan was impleaded as the accused for that he had actually controlled several companies and not performing tax obligations evaded from paying taxes, duties or other mandatory payments and by doing this lead the companies to the deliberate insolvency. The protection from the accusation undertook advocate Karen Hovhannisyan (License number 1212), who collected necessary evidences during criminal procedure and could proof the innocence of Karen Abgaryan by judicial way and to reach his full acquittal.

As a result Karen Abgaryan not only evaded from 6 year imprisonment but also the demand of confiscation 2 million AMD from him in favor of State budget was rejected. His rights and interests as baseless accused person was recovered.
